

The Christ's Church

Kołobrzeg

The seat of the Christ's Church in Kołobrzeg is located in the close vicinity of the sea, at 62 Jedności Narodowej Street.

Currently, the community in Kołobrzeg consists of about 300 followers. The pastor of the community is Piotr Karel. The chapel has its own baptistery and well-organized back-up facilities, due to which it can offer guest rooms to holidaymakers (parking space, permanent access to the Internet).

The Christ's Church (formerly known as the Community of Christ's Churches, the Church of Christ's Communities) is an independent Christian Protestant church of evangelical tradition, stemming from the Churches of Christ (also known as Campbellites; the name derived from the name of Thomas Campbell). The Church is a member of the Evangelical Alliance of the Republic of Poland. The Churches of Christ have been present in Poland since 1921.
