

Church of Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Police

Police

The Church of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Police is in the Old Town of Police. It is located between Mazurska, Wojska Polskiego and S. Staszica, in the vicinity of the Old Town Park and the former church cemetery. There are several parking spaces along the church fence and on the other side of Staszica Street. At the entrance from Wojska Polskiego, as well as from the presbytery, at Mazurska there are bus stops for communication.

Church of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the old part of Police, it is St Mary's Church. Its origins are related to the end of the existence of the former Gothic St. Mary's Church from the turn of the 13th / 14th centuries, located until the 19th century on the Old Town Square. The temple at Mazurska was built in 1894. Its high and soaring tower topped with a sphere with a cross seems to tower over the city, as it is visible from many of its points. Built of brick, the church was built on a Latin cross plan. During World War II, the roof of the church was destroyed, and it was rebuilt after that period. On December 8, 1951, the parish was consecrated as a Catholic of the call Of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, since then, a parish church fair has been celebrated on the anniversary of the consecration. In the presbytery of the church there is a cross of St. Francis of Assisi. There are also two side altars in the church: in the southern nave - an altar consecrated to Our Lady of Częstochowa, and in the northern aisle - an altar of Divine Mercy. There are stained glass windows with the images of saints in the windows of the church. It was in this temple that the idea of the famous "Cecyliada", that is the Police Days of Music, was born, which was introduced to the calendar of Police events thanks to Fr. Mirosław Oliwiak. Today, performances and concerts are still held, but they are hosted by the Church of St. Kazimierz the Prince in Nowe Police.
