

Gąsierzyno Yacht Harbor

Coming from Stepnica, pass the villages of Stepniczka and Piaski Małe, then head towards Gąsierzyn. After entering the village, go straight to Wojska Polskiego Street, and then turn left at the main intersection. At the end of the road, you will see the marina.

One of the smallest marinas on the West Pomeranian Sailing Trail - a public parking space. 10 units can moor here. The marina has electricity, water, a shelter with benches and a fireplace. There is a lot of greenery, the area is well-kept, lit and monitored. The marina does not have toilets. The marina in Gąsierzyn is a good place for a few hours' stop during the trip. It is not a typical marina with all the expected comforts, but it is the perfect place for camping surrounded by beautiful nature. And most importantly - the stop in Gąsierzyn is free. The way to the marina is well signposted. There is electricity, drinking water and a camping site at the marina.
