

Marina Kamień Pomorski

The marina is located at Mistrzów Żeglarstwa. To get to the marina, driving from the city center, head towards the Town Hall, Old Town Square, and the Amphitheater. From there, along Bałtycka Street, you can reach the coast, where there is a pier and a marina.

One of the largest marinas in the West Pomeranian Voivodeship. It has 240 berths. Picturesquely situated in the vicinity of the old town. Perfect location by the beautiful Kamień Lagoon, with access to the Baltic Sea through the Dziwna strait. Yachts are moored here at floating docks, which are equipped with water and electricity intake points. Access to the piers is restricted to sailors only. The marina is also equipped with a special place for collecting waste from yachts. Sailors also have two buildings at their disposal - one is a club house, and the other is a sanitary building, equipped with showers and a kitchen for self-catering. Two conference rooms are also available. Smaller up to 12 people and larger up to 50 people. The mooring places are sheltered by a long, nearly 300-meter-long breakwater. Convenient large slip facilitates launching smaller vessels. At the marina, there are: a toilet, a shower, a laundry, internet, electricity, drinking water, a slip, a parking, a boat builder, a mechanic, charters. A gas station is approx. 1 km away.
