

Łunowo harbor

Świnoujście

The marina is in the Wolin National Park, on the Wicko Wielkie Lake. It is also part of the Szczecin Lagoon and part of the Stara Świna backwaters.

It is a small marina for tourist boats. It belongs to the Complex of Maritime Schools in Świnoujście. You enter the marina through a narrow and shallow canal with beavers making their home on its shores. You must watch out for any fallen trees or branches. For many years, the marina has been a base for sailing youth from schools in Świnoujście. The marina area is fenced and monitored, there are also water and power connections. Sanitary facilities are in aesthetic containers. At the marina there are also: a slip, parking and camping site. The marina is situated in the forest, its swimming pool is protected from strong winds and waves. It is worth having a mosquito spray with you because in Łunów they can make life difficult for water sports enthusiasts. The conditions at the marina are quite harsh. When arriving here, it is better to have your supplies, because the nearest store or petrol
