

Four Winds Club Yacht Harbor

Świnoujście

The Yacht Harbor of the Four Winds Club is in the northern part of the town, at Jachtowa, on the west bank of the Świna River. Nearby is the Angel's Fort and the Yacht Port of the Sports and Recreation Center. Accessible by car or local public transport.

It is the closest pool to the harbor heads. When heading to the Four Winds, you need to steer very carefully, because you can run aground. The pool is rectangular with a wooden berth. Vessels with a maximum draft of up to 1.5 meters can moor in it. In places in the port, it is even shallower - about 1 meter, especially in the northern part of the marina. The marina is surrounded by greenery, sheltered from northern winds and high waves. Sailors have at their disposal piers equipped with water and power connections. There is also a slip and a crane for lifting yachts out of the water. There is a hangar on site where yachts can be repaired and stored. There is also a mechanical workshop.
