

SZCZECIN The Marine Scouting Centre

Szczecin

This marina, which belongs to Szczecin's scouts, is located in a beautiful cove of Lake Dąbie. It has a long tradition and many of Szczecin's famous sailors started their careers here. The marina offers boatmen quiet and sheltered mooring, even when there are very strong winds. Yachts berth by the concrete quay, which is equipped with electricity and water, and is connected to the port by a wellmarked waterway. The waterway is about two metres deep, which limits the availability of the port to larger sea-going yachts. There is a crane and slip for smaller boats, and yachtsmen can make use of the hangar and workshop facilities. There is also a company servicing marine engines. HOM is involved in the training of young sailors, and the marina has a large campsite and a site for camp-fires. HOM has a dozen vessels, which can be chartered.
