

Beach in Nowe Warpno

The guarded beach in Nowe Warpno is located at the Nowe Warpno Lake, on the southern shore of the peninsula. There is a historic church nearby. In front of the entrance to the beach from Kościuszki Street, there is a free car park and two dining options, as well as a souvenir and postcard shop. The beach at Nowe Warpno can be reached from Szczecin by provincial road No. 115, or from the vicinity of Tanowo by provincial road No. 114. The transport connection of Nowy Warpno and Police is possible thanks to the private carrier Ever-Trans, running between the places several times a day.

The beach in Nowe Warpno has recently become a place where people come from all over the Police powiat and beyond. Both Szczecin and tourists from Germany are hosted here. Although located in a remote corner, it, along with the entire town, has become a new point on the tourist map of the district. Until recently neglected, today it is teeming with life. Thanks to the revitalization of the Old Town, the construction of a promenade with an observation tower, the beach has also gained a new face. The tidy swimming area encourages people to come and spend their free time here. The water by the shore is very warm and relatively clean.

Admission to the beach is free. The sandy beach is guarded by lifeguards and the swimming area is marked by buoys. There is a pier with benches by the beach, and next to it there is an exit for people in wheelchairs. Beachgoers can relax on the sand or on the pier. There is also a paid toilet nearby. Right next to the beach there is a promenade surrounding the peninsula and in the northern part there is an observation tower. It is in the vicinity of the beach where the tourist life of Nowe Warpno centers. Nearby, there are also the historic buildings of the town with the Market Square and the Town Hall, as well as other interesting objects, including the Sailors' Avenue on the shore of the Nowe Warpno Bay, in the north of the promontory.
