

Sports hall in Mielenko Drawskie

The sports hall is situated in the village of Mielenko Drawskie, around 5 km to the south of Drawsko Pomorskie. To arrive at the village you should take national road no. 20 and then turn into provincial road no. 175 (head for Kalisz Pomorski). When you reach Mielenko, turn right shortly after you go past the village sign, and head for the centre of the village.

The sports hall in Mielenko Drawskie was built in 2011 by the local elementary school attended by children from several neighbouring villages. This large and modern building gives the school students an opportunity for correct physical development. The facility is also used by the locals, sports associations and all interested parties. The building is adapted so that it can hold volleyball, basketball, tennis and handball matches. The building is also equipped with gymnastics ladders, spectator stands and curtain dividers that divide the field into two parts. The sports hall comprises: a gymnasium, changing rooms for women and men, storage room for equipment, coach
