

The Sports and Entertainment Hall

The Sports and Entertainment Hall in Koszalin is situated in the north-east part of the city at Śniadeckich Street, next to the main headquarters of the Koszalin University of Technology. In front of the building there are parking places for approx. 300 passenger vehicles and 8 coaches.

The Sports and Entertainment Hall in Koszalin was established in 2012. It is a building intended mainly for the organization of sports events, concerts, exhibitions, conferences and other cultural events. It is the largest and the most modern complex of this sort in the Central Pomerania. In the main area of the building there is a sports arena with the dimensions of 45 x 24 m. During mass events there are 3 thousand seats and it can be increased by another 1 thousand seats on wooden chairs. Moreover, in the complex there are changing rooms, training rooms, gym, fitness rooms, billiards room, sauna, whirlpool, table tennis room, conference rooms and catering facilities. It is possible to rent particular facilities. The events taking place on the main arena can be watched on three large screens, two of which are inside the building and one
