

CKE Stara Rzeźnia Euroregion Cultural Center in Szczecin

Szczecin

Stara Rzeźnia Euroregion Culture Center - (concerts, lectures, exhibitions, room rental, organizational information, cooperation, promotion, etc.)

In 2012, CSL Internationale Spedition, together with its boss, Laura Hołowacz, purchased the historic building of the Old Slaughterhouse in Szczecin's Łasztownia, it was thoroughly restored, and this is where the company's headquarters is now located. Along with the decision to purchase this beautiful building, a decision was also made to establish a special branch of the company - the Stara Rzeźnia Euroregion Culture Center. Here we are! We have been operating since December 2014. Our idea fixe is primarily the promotion and dissemination of initiatives and undertakings related to culture, art, artistic creation, and education. We also want to promote the port and maritime traditions of Szczecin.

You are all invited, willing creators, culture animators, students, activists, and all those who want to co-create this place with us. We have approximately 540m2 inside the building and much, much more outside! We can use the space for great cultural and social initiatives.

We operate on many levels - we organize film screenings, workshops for children and adults, educational classes for young people, concerts, exhibitions, lectures, trainings, conferences, meetings with authors, theater performances, etc.

In Kubryk Literacki, which is in the lower part of the Stara Rzeźnia building, we promote Szczecin brands – publishing houses, publications and souvenirs created by local artists. We also offer rental of our rooms for various types of conferences, trainings, or special events.
