

The Promenade at Szczecin Lagoon in Trzebież

The Promenade in Trzebież stretches along Szczecin Lagoon, approx. 32 km north from the centre of Szczecin, near the guarded beach and it goes along a trail which starts next to the bus loop Trzebież Mała, from where Samorządowa Line goes to Police, and in summer also Plażowa Line. From Szczecin you can get there by province road no. 115, which around Tanowo connects with province road no. 114 going through Police and smaller villages to Nowe Warpno through Trzebież. You can get to the beach next to which there is the promenade, following the road signs, one of which is just behind the railway crossing in the village. Following the road signs you have to go along Dworcowa Street, turn left into Wojsk Ochrony Pogranicza Street, and then turn right into Polna Street. At the intersection turn into Osadników Street and then into Leśna Street, and continue straight to the beach. There are two free large parking places and various attractions.

The Promenade along Szczecin Lagoon starts next to DELFIN Restaurant and goes along the shore among trees and reed beds up to the guarded beach. The wide
