

The mill complex

Trzebiatów

The mill is located in the centre of Trzebiatów in close proximity to the market square, at 59 Juliusza Słowackiego Street.

The mill complex at Słowackiego Street was established in 1850. It gained its present appearance after having been rebuilt in 1927. The complex includes: a three-storey mill (not visible from the street), a warehouse and two houses. The host of the complex is Zygmunt Adamek, a long-time miller, who makes the effort to create a museum in the buildings. They are not normally available for sightseeing, although it is sometimes opened for tourists.
