

Parish church of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

The church is located in the Post-Cistercian abbey, construction of which lasted for 130 years, during the 13th and the 14th centuries.

The transept consists of five bays, the tower was erected in the place where the transept joins the main nave. Not much has been preserved from the original equipment. In the presbytery there is a replica of a triptych from the 15th century, and the pulpit from the 16th century, and some wooden benches.

In the transept – the choir matroneum with pipe organs. A large rosette which decorates the top part of the main nave is also worth attention.

Mass times: Sat. 8.30 11.30, Mon., Wed., Fri., Sat. 18.00.
