

Leonardia – Entertainment and leisure centre

"Leonardia" - the entertainment and leisure centre is located in Krupy – a small village by the road No. 205, between Darłowo and Sławno. Visitors, who come from Darłowo, will see "Leonardia" right after they enter Krupy, on the left side of the road.

"Leonardia" is an education and leisure centre which offers an open-air, green space. Here, visitors can participate in over 100 different games. Installations and mechanisms from wood and metal were all handmade. The installations, likewise the park's name, refer to Leonardo da Vinci's projects. The games can be played individually or in groups, but one thing they all have in common is that they are all located outdoors. Thus, guest may compete while enjoying fresh air. The games include: bowling, air hockey and other less popular games from all over the world.

Under the roof, visitors may feel like great constructors, creating from wooden elements models of Leonardo's inventions. "Leonardia" is the only such place in Poland. Here, families with children, but also adults, may spend their free time in an interesting way. The ticket is valid all day long. The owners of the
