

The Bison Demonstration Farm

The Bison Demonstration Farm is located in Wolin National Park at Leśna Street. It is located near the green tourist path, and it takes a 30-minute walk from the centre of Międzyzdroje to reach it (1.5 km).

The Bison Demonstration Farm occupies covers 28 hectares. There are observation terraces behind the fence, and the entrance is guarded by a decorative gate. Four bison from Borek and Białowieża: cow 'Pomina', bull 'Podskakiewicz' and two heifers 'Pompeja' and 'Podwyżka' were brought to the Farm in 1976. Currently, most bison living at the farm were born there. 1-2 calves are born every year. At various times, the number of bison ranged from 5 to 12. Currently, there are 5 of them: Poznaniak II, Polikosia, Posawa, Pozowa and Polanin II.

Although the farm itself was created under the program for the maintenance of bison, also the cured, or raised by human, animals incapable of independent existence in the wild reside there.
