

Cabinet of Wax Figures

The Wax Cabinet is located on the main and most representative street in the city, near the Star Promenade and the pier, opposite the amphitheater.

The Wax Figures Cabinet is a private museum located in the center of Międzyzdroje. It is one of the largest facilities of this type in Poland. There are around 100 figures in the museum showing various figures in their natural size. These are both historical figures, such as Jan Matejko, Leonardo da Vinci, and contemporary figures, such as Barack Obama, Angelina Jolie. Among the real figures, we can also find film ones, such as Shrek or Avatar, as well as characters from legends and myths. In addition to wax figures, the museum also houses a gallery of human curiosities, where we can see the owners of the largest feet or the longest neck.

The museum is a great entertainment for people of all ages. An additional attraction is the possibility of taking photos with selected exhibits without paying additional fees.

The museum is a year-round facility.
