Dance performance. Dance Theater Kiosk Ruchu.

Exclusion, what does it really mean? Do we exclude ourselves or does the world in which we live automatically remove the more vulnerable and weaker individuals from the frame? One day we can be weak and the other one can undergo a change. This spectacle tells about exclusion, about getting out of traumatic events. The title Maciej K. undergoes transformation, dance becomes his springboard and asylum of freedom. The multilayiness of our soul hides many secrets and motivations to change. Let's discover the secrets of will together with Maciej K., everyone decides for themselves. This performance is also to show, in some way, the position of lonely people who are constantly looking for their own path. It is also supposed to start discussions about people with disabilities - how to help them, what methods to use to re-integrate them into the social space? How long social somehow deviating from the established norms groups can be excluded.
