

Eureka Ruchu exhibition

Szczecin

The Szczecin Eureka Ruchu Exhibition is in the Museum of Technology and Communication, at Niemierzyńska 18 A. At Niemierzyńska there is a tram and bus stop.

The Eureka Movement exhibition is devoted exclusively to the phenomenon of movement and contains more than a dozen interactive exhibits on this phenomenon in physics and technology (disc race on an inclined plane, magic suitcase, Celtic stone, pendulums, etc.). The exhibits, apart from the fun qualities, teach the laws of nature related to movement. The exhibition helps, among others in the implementation of interesting lessons in kinematics and dynamics of movement. The exhibition is available not only for schools. Families and tourists, also from abroad, constitute a large group of visitors.

Price: additional fee for the Museum of Technology and Transport ticket PLN 5 (when buying a family ticket, an additional fee for each person). Group ticket (minimum 10 people) for Eureka - PLN 4.

Organized groups wishing to visit the museum on Tuesday are kindly requested to book in advance.

Parking is available in the courtyard of the museum. There is a possibility of parking coaches.
