Polish The X Files

The Nautilus Foundation is the only one officially registered in the National Court Register and subject to the Ministry of Science and Higher Education (!) an NGO whose aim is to establish the truth about UFOs, alien civilizations, and inquire into the meaning of life and God. For many years people forming FN have traveled all over the world, collecting relationships and evidence that the reality we are observing is only the "tip of the iceberg".

Robert Bernatowicz is a journalist who for a quarter of the century has an unusual passion - he studies phenomena that commonly arouse a smile of pity and sad head nodding with disapproval, i.e. "unexplained phenomena".

Is there life after death? Why are some people beautiful, healthy and rich whereas others are poor, ugly and sick? Does God exist? If he does, why can he be so unfair in distributing happiness? These are the questions that made Robert Bernatowicz set off on one of the most interesting journeys of his life, the aim of which was to answer these questions. He toured the world many times and talked to thousands of people, collected hundreds of thousands of pages about the encounters with the "unknown". After 25 years, he decided that the material he collected allows for putting unusual but surprising theses on such matters as "man, goal of life or God". He will talk about all this during his lecture.
