

The Władysław Jagiełło Multimedia Museum at the Cliff

The museum has its seat in the centre of Trzęsacz at 3B Klifowa Street, 50 metres from the ruins of St Nicholas's Church and a five-minute walk from the Seaside Narrow Gauge Railway Gryfice - Trzęsacz - Rewal - Niechorze - Pogorzelica.

The museum has its seat in the centre of Trzęsacz at 3B Klifowa Street, 50 metres from the ruins of St Nicholas's Church and a five-minute walk from the Seaside Narrow Gauge Railway Gryfice - Trzęsacz - Rewal - Niechorze - Pogorzelica.

The museum was established in 2000. Its founder was Władysław Jagiełło, a resident of Trzęsacz between 1998 and 2006. The exhibition depicts the history of Trzęsacz, especially St Nicholas's Church and the 15th meridian, on which the town is located. The respective rooms show the history, legends, the abrasion process, the meaning of the 15th meridian, time zones, how life looked like in Trzęsacz 600 years ago. The exhibition is enriched by films, sound effects, projections of the

DETAILED INFORMATION

ADDRESS

Klifowa 3B, 72-344

PHONE

+48 504 07 4 780

WWW

<http://muzeumtrzesacz.pl/...>

E-MAIL

muzeum@muzeumtrzesacz.pl

COORDINATES

54.0767899991, 14.9922999567
54° 4' 36", 14° 59' 32"

Navigate to Show on the map

Add to travel plan

depths of the sea, animated legend about Zielenica, a multimedia show of the last moments of the building on the cliff and the process of the destruction of the cliff. There are also some original relics from St Nicholas's Church.

A separate soundtrack has been created for children to let the little explorers learn through play. A visit to the Museum lasts 25 minutes.

Geolocation

COMMENTS

Sign in to leave a comment.

Project co-financed by the European Union from the European Regional Development Fund within the Regional Operational Programme for the West Pomeranian Voivodeship for the years 2007 to 2013.