

Fisherman Monument

The Fisherman Monument in Nowe Warpno is located at the end of the pier on the Nowe Warpno Bay, in the city center, approx. 43 km north-west from the center of Szczecin. Sailors' Avenue leads to the monument. Provincial road No. 114 runs right next to it. The city and its surroundings are crossed by the red bicycle trail "Wkrzańska Forest", as well as the green R-66 International Bicycle Trail around the Szczeciński Lagoon. Connection between Nowe Warpno and Police is provided by a private carrier Ever-Trans.

The Fisherman Monument symbolizes the centuries-old connection of Nowe Warpno with fishing, it is located on the pier, to which the Sailors' Avenue leads. The monument shows a fisherman sitting on a barrel, wearing a raincoat and a waterproof hat. In the left hand, the figure is holding a fish. On the same side there is a chest with caught fish, and on the right - another barrel. The author of the monument is a sculptor from Szczecin, Bohdan Ronin-Walknowski. The unveiling of the Fisherman Monument took place in 2012.
