

The Regional Tourist Information Centre

The Regional Tourist Information Centre in Koszalin is located on Dworcowa Street, near a railway station and coach station. The Centre is situated on the right side of a pedestrian precinct, when looking from the exit of an underground passage leading from the railway station towards the city centre.

The Regional Tourist Information Centre in Koszalin was established in 2005 as a part of the Association of the Communes and Districts of Central Pomerania. It is a modern institution established to meet the needs both of people visiting the region and of the inhabitants of the city and its neighbourhood. The Tourist Information provides free-of-charge consultations concerning the city and the district of Koszalin. Services are provided in Polish, English, and German.

The Centre provides information concerning regional tourist attractions, such as sights, overlooks, nature reserves, thematic villages, etc. Tourists preferring
